

David Bass: Master Club Fitter and Builder

David Bass is a highly respected and accomplished club fitter and builder known for his dedication to customer service and his expertise in the world of golf equipment. With a career spanning many years, Bass has developed a reputation for his unmatched commitment to helping golfers of all levels find the perfect set of clubs to suit their unique needs. He combines cutting-edge technology with old-school craftsmanship, ensuring that every player—whether a seasoned professional or an amateur—receives the highest level of service and quality.

David's career has been marked by numerous accolades, including being named Professional Club Maker of the Year five times, in 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, and 2004. His consistent excellence was further recognized when he was awarded the prestigious Mizuno Fitter of the Year in 2007, cementing his status as a leader in the club fitting industry.

A key element of David's success is his deep understanding of the golf swing, both the long game and the short game. He approaches each fitting session with a detailed eye, closely observing the unique style of swing a player brings to the course. This attention to detail allows him to provide custom-fit solutions that enhance performance, helping players maximize their potential.

Over the years, David has had the privilege of working with hundreds of professional golfers and elite college athletes, tailoring clubs that elevate their game. His extensive experience has made him exceptionally knowledgeable about the nuances of the golf swing, and he leverages this expertise to ensure that every club he builds or fits is optimized for performance. His approach is holistic, considering every factor that might influence a player's performance, from swing mechanics to physical build and personal preferences.

David's philosophy goes beyond just fitting clubs; he believes in creating long-term relationships with his clients. He is dedicated to ongoing support, making himself available to answer questions and offer advice whenever needed. His commitment to following up and seeking feedback allows him to continuously improve his service and maintain strong, lasting connections with the golfers he works with.

Whether you are a professional looking to fine-tune your equipment or a casual player in need of expert advice, David Bass's unrivaled expertise and personalized service make him a trusted partner in your golfing journey.
